GLOBAL TABLE GAMES & SURVEILLANCE CONFERENCE

-BEST NEW TABLE GAMES COMPETITION-

Description: The GTGS Conference's Best New Table Games Contest is being held in conjunction with the Global Table Games & Surveillance Conference, June 1 through June 3, 2027 at the Orleans Hotel & Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada. It is designed to recognize the newest table games and their inventors/companies, whose new games, as judged by casino table game executives, have the best combination of player appeal, ease of understanding, and potential commercial success.

Eligibility: The GTGS Conference's Best New Table Games Contest is open to individuals or companies that have developed (or own the rights to) casino table games that are fairly considered to be table games and played on a layout and not an electronic game, mechanical device or product. New poker games and poker game variations are acceptable. Existing table games with original side-bets are acceptable. All Table Games entered in the competition must prove out the math that the game has a reasonable built-in house advantage and will need a certified math report to get a field trial in accordance with whichever jurisdiction said field trial will take place.

Each exhibitor is allowed to enter one (1) new table game per booth space, any size, with a maximum of two (2) new table games in the contest for two (2) booths (or more) and is entirely responsible for the presentation of his/her game(s) to the attendees/judges of the conference, including table set-up, furniture/seating, game staffing, sample playing opportunity, collateral, mathematical information on the game, etc.

Any exhibitors with games entered in the Best New Table Games Contest shall not give away/raffle any prizes with a value in excess of $25. The competition is designed to judge games on their viability in the marketplace and not which booth has the best swag/giveaways.

The Judging Process: Judging for the GTGS Conference's Best New Table Games Contest will be conducted by attendees of the GTGS Conference who have no affiliation with any of the individuals or companies whose new table games are entered in the competition, including workplace. Judging will begin during the opening night reception of the conference, then throughout the conference – votes must be cast at the designated voting station no later than Thursday, June 3rd at 12 pm Pacific Time. Voting is secret and the results are tabulated by show management.

Judges/attendees will each receive one official ballot with all of the individual new table games entered in the contest listed on it. Each judge/attendee will be asked to cast their votes based on the game's playing appeal, ease of understanding, and potential commercial success. They will then hand in their ballots to assigned management personnel or deposit them in a ballot box located in a safe area designated by management.

In tabulating the ballots, points will be awarded in the following manner: 3 points for a 1st place vote, 2 points for a 2nd place vote and 1 point for a 3rd place vote. The results for 1st, 2nd and 3rd places will be determined by total number of points received.

The new table game earning the most points in the tabulation of the official Ballots submitted by the judges/attendees will win the Diamond Award for the GTGS Conference's Best New Table Game of the 2027 Contest. The new table game earning the second most points in the balloting will win the Platinum Award and the new game with the third most points will win the Gold Award. Ties will be broken by run-off voting at the Awards Presentation. Winners of the GTGS Conference's Best New Table Games Contest will be announced during the Awards Presentation on June 3, 2027.

Special note:

- The Diamond winner, providing that the game meets necessary regulatory and/or compact approvals, will receive floor space at a sponsoring casino property that agrees to a field trial before March 1st, 2028, provided there are no delays by Gaming Boards or Commissions.
- The Platinum and Gold winners will receive floor space at casino properties that agree to a field trial before March 1st, 2028, IF the two additional sponsors are found.
- We anticipate having a total of three quality sponsors at the 2028 contest, but we cannot guarantee that.
